

I am in favor of the Indiana's "do not call" list. I do not get interrupted during family time hardly ever anymore. I have more time to spend with my family and alot less time on the phone. If I want to purchase anything I will find what I want to buy and purchase at my convience not during dinner or first thing in the morning before my kids are off to school.